COE Social Media Policy

Electronic and Social Media Use by Field and Clinical Students: All University of Central Missouri students placed in field or clinical placements will interact and communicate in a professional manner with students, parents/legal guardians, district administrators, and staff according to guidelines set forth by district and building policies of the school district in which the teacher candidate is placed. In all forms of communication, field and clinical students must maintain professional boundaries.

The use by field or clinical students of any social media to communicate with students and/or parents/ legal guardians, including but not limited to email, Facebook, Twitter, texting, and blogs must be for educational purposes approved by the field or clinical student's school district. Communications must comply with all relevant district policies and must be set up for public viewing.

Field and clinical students must not use social media to engage in private communications with students. Teacher candidates shall not use their personal electronic communication devices, accounts, web pages, or other forms of electronic communication to communicate with students and/or parents/ legal guardians.

The Learning Commons

The University of Central Missouri Learning Commons assists students with a wide range of academic skill development. A majority of course points will be directly related to writing ability, and therefore the student will be assessed on course content that included their scholarly writing. The Learning Commons is available to all UCM students and is located in JCK Library – Third Floor on the UCM campus. For more information, contact:
